

I am totally opposed to retention of any morse code test requirements as proposed by this (FISTS) petition. The claim of emergency need for morse has not been shown to be of anything but rare occasions, if at all.

The other licensing changes proposed should be researched and discussed on a separate basis from any discussion as to retention of or increasing of morse requirements.